

Call for Tutorial Proposals

The IEEE International Conference on Multimedia & Expo (ICME) has been the flagship multimedia conference sponsored by four IEEE societies since 2000. It serves as a forum to promote the exchange of the latest advances in multimedia technologies, systems, and applications from both the research and development perspectives of the circuits and systems, communications, computer, and signal processing communities. ICME 2015 will be held in Torino, Italy, from June 29 to July 3, 2015.

The ICME 2015 Organizing Committee invites proposals for tutorials to be held on the first day of the conference Monday June 29, 2015. We seek half-day tutorials on established or emerging research topics within the field of multimedia and related topics, such as:

- Multimedia content analysis
- Multimedia activity and event understanding
- Multimedia search and retrieval
- Mobile, location-based and other context-based multimedia
- Social, user-generated, and cloud-based multimedia
- 3D immersion and virtual reality
- Multimedia security and forensics
- Human computer interaction based on multimedia
- Multimedia networking and communication
- Multimedia coding and compression
- Multimedia signal processing and enhancement
- Multimedia systems, applications, services and implementations

Proposals prepared in a single-column PDF file, should include the following information:

1. Title of the tutorial
2. Area of the tutorial (refer to the above list of topics)
3. 300 word abstract (for inclusion in registration materials)
4. Keywords
5. Target audience and prerequisite knowledge of audience
6. Up to 4 pages full description of the tutorial, including learning objectives, table of contents, and teaching modules in details (review, in-depth content, etc...)
7. Instructor(s) and their credentials (4-page CV for each instructor, including selected relevant publications in the proposed area of the tutorial)

Important Deadlines:

- Tutorial Proposal Submissions Due: January 31, 2015
- Notification of Tutorial Proposal Acceptance: February 28, 2015
- Tutorial Outline/Slides Due: May 30, 2015

How to Submit Proposals:
