

ICME 2004

The Grand Hotel, Taipei, Taiwan

June 27th – 30th, 2004

<http://www.icme2004.org>

The IEEE International Conference on Multimedia & Expo (ICME) is an annual joint activity of the Circuits and Systems Society, the Communications Society, the Computer Society, and the Signal Processing Society of IEEE. This annual event brings together more than 500 researchers, engineers, and students to discuss the state-of-the-art research, technology and applications in multimedia. ICME 2004 features regular papers, distinguished keynote speeches, tutorials, industrial exhibitions and academia research demonstrations.

We invite contributions describing research, development and applications in the following, and related, areas. Papers submitted should adhere to a double-column, single-space, 4-page format.

- Audio, speech, image, graphic, and video processing
- Content-based information retrieval and pattern discovery
- Hardware and software for multimedia systems
- Integration of media, art, and multimedia technology
- Intelligent multimedia signal processing
- Location aware multimedia systems
- Multimedia communications and networking
- Multimedia computing systems and appliances
- Multimedia database and digital libraries
- Multimedia human-machine interface and interaction
- Multimedia security and content protection
- Multimedia standards and related issues
- Signal processing for media integration
- Virtual reality and 3-D imaging
- Wireless multimedia

Important Dates:

• Special Session Proposal:	Oct 15, 2003
• Paper Submission:	Dec 1, 2003
• Proposals for Tutorial:	Dec 1, 2003
• Proposals for Exhibition and Demo:	Dec 1, 2003
• Notification of Acceptance:	Mar 1, 2004
• Camera-Ready Paper:	Mar 31, 2004

Detailed submission instructions are shown in <http://www.icme2004.org>. The Grand Hotel is a Chinese palace style architecture with convenient transportation. ICME 2004 will also arrange tours to the National Palace Museum, containing many fabulous Chinese art treasures, hiking in the famous Yangmingshan National Park, and other tours.